

New Horizons

Volume 5 | Issue 1

Article 5

2021

Editorial Board

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarcommons.scu.edu/newhorizons>

Recommended Citation

(2021) "Editorial Board," New Horizons: Vol. 5 : Iss. 1 , Article 5.

Available at: <https://scholarcommons.scu.edu/newhorizons/vol5/iss1/5>

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at Scholar Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in New Horizons by an authorized editor of Scholar Commons. For more information, please contact rscroggin@scu.edu.

Editorial Board

Editor

Barbara Anne Kozee

Barb Kozee (she/her) is a 2nd year Master of Divinity student concentrated in Christian social ethics. She comes to JST with a background in International Political Economy. In her academic scholarship, Barb aims to bring together the fields of theology and the social sciences. She is currently interested in the relationship between religion, voting behavior, and civil discourse and has written on issues related to gender, sexuality, and the family.

Editorial Board

Thomas Bambrick, SJ

Thomas Bambrick, SJ, is a member of the U.S. Midwest Province of the Society of Jesus and a third-year Master of Divinity student at JST. He has an academic background in English literature, Italian, education, and philosophy. His current interests include educational equity, Ignatian Spirituality and formation, and racial justice.

Stanley Goh, SJ

Stanley Goh, SJ, is a Jesuit from Singapore and is completing his Licentiate in Sacred Theology at JST. He has an academic background in Political Science, Philosophy, Education and Theology. An educator at heart, he continues to dabble academically in the philosophy of education, experiential learning, and practical theology.

Alyssa Moore

Alyssa Moore is a second-year Master of Divinity student at JST. She has an academic background in both theology and environmental science, and is currently a 2020-2021 Fellow with CreatureKind, an interdenominational organization exploring the intersections of faith, farmed animal welfare, and other social justice issues. Her recent work in ecotheology and Catholic thought will be published as a chapter in the forthcoming volume Valuing Lives, Healing Earth.

Joel Thompson, SJ

Joel Thompson SJ, is a Guyanese Jesuit and a second year Master of Divinity student at JST. He holds a BSc. in Electrical Engineering and a B.A. in Philosophy and Theology. His master's degree is in Environment and Development. Academically, he is interested in questions at the intersection of religion, development, and ecology. Most of his previous research and work has been centered on young adult ministry with an emphasis on environmental and social justice.

Matt Yim, SJ

Matt Yim, SJ, is a member of the US West (UWE) Province and is a 2nd year Master of Divinity student at JST-SC. He has degrees in English Literature, Chinese Language & Literature, Library & Information Science, and Philosophy. His current scholarly interests include disability studies and the Old Testament, 20th century French philosophy, and the American Pragmatist philosophers John Dewey and George Herbert Mead.

Anne Kallin Zehren

Anne is a MTS student, following a career in media (NBC, Newsweek) and as a start-up entrepreneur (Teen People, Current TV and Common Sense Media). She has served on a variety of boards, including advising President Clinton on youth violence and teen pregnancy, and as board V.P. of Alpha Sigma Nu. Anne hopes to an "entrepreneur for the Holy Spirit" by finding new ways to make spirituality more culturally relevant and accessible. She lives in Oakland with her son.