Phi Alpha Theta

Statement of Purpose

Phi Alpha Theta the international honor society in history, is an organization that promotes the study of history by encouraging research, teaching, publication and the exchange of ideas among historians. The Lamda Upsilon chapter established at Santa Clara University in 1966, is active in student and educational programs. Members are selected on the basis of academic excellence and dedication to the study and writing of history.

Students interested in submitting articles or reviews for consideration should contact the History Department at Santa Clara. Papers should be double spaced throughout and prepared according to The Chicago Manual of Style. The manuscript should be accompanied by an IBM compatible disk containing the document file on WordPerfect 5.1 or higher software.
