Volume V of Historical Perspectives is the eleventh journal published by Santa Clara University's Lambda Upsilon chapter of Phi Alpha Theta. As members of the Editorial Board we have directed our efforts toward providing you, the reader, with articles which we believe are both thought provoking and timely.

This volume is a compilation of papers written by undergraduate students of history at Santa Clara University and represents the History Department's ongoing commitment to fostering excellence in scholarship. The papers submitted to the Phi Alpha Theta Editorial Board were reviewed, selected, and edited for publication. The papers chosen for this edition are representative of the issues and topics encountered by students in the 1998-1999 academic year. The editors would like to thank all those who submitted their work for consideration. We were pleased by the overall quality of the papers that were submitted.

We would like to acknowledge the support and contribution of the History Department faculty, the department chair, Professor Stephen Gelber, Professor Peter Pierson who provided the illustrations, and faculty advisors Professors Timothy O'Keefe and Thomas Turley for their dedication and assistance in making this publication possible. A special thanks to Ann Beyer, our production assistant, whose expertise and commitment to the project brought this journal to print.
