et al.: Dedication Dedicated to
Professor István I. Mócsy
Associate Professor of History

Professor Mócsy will retire in June of 2003. He came to Santa Clara in 1970 and has served the students of Santa Clara University for thirty-three years. During his years in the History Department, he enlightened the upper division students with the study of Russia, Germany, and Eastern Europe. Many of the incoming freshmen became excited about history in his modern Western Civilization courses. The Honors Program would not have been nearly as successful without his annual Modern Western Culture course.
