Call for Papers

We, the organizing committee, are pleased to announce the call for papers for the Tigrinya Symposium on Language, Literature, and Culture that will take place on August 18-19, 2023 at Santa Clara University, California. Tigrinya is a language spoken in the Horn of Africa, namely in Eritrea and Tigray (Ethiopia). This symposium will link the Tigrinya language, literature, and culture with the objective of creating a platform for academic exchange of the rich Tigrinya linguistic features, wider literature, and the cultural nuance that underline characteristic features of Tigrinya speakers in the Horn of Africa. Hence, this platform will provide a forum for researchers, scientists, students, and other interested individuals in the public to discuss new ideas, results of research works and work in progress, and more on aspects of Tigrinya language, literature, and culture. Some of the topics or themes of interest include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Tigrinya: theoretical linguistics:
 - o phonetics and phonology,
 - o morphology, semantics, syntax,
 - o Language teaching and language acquisition, pragmatics, discourse analysis, translation studies, socio-historical and comparative linguistics.
- Development of the Tigrinya language in contemporary technology
- Tigrinya and AI (Artificial Intelligence)
- Tigrinya in Social Media, Film & Drama
- Translation Studies
- Tigrinya language education; and Tigrinya language as a medium of communication/culture
- Tigrinya language, aspects of gender and power
- Tigrinya Punctuation
- Dictionaries
- Assessment of Tigrinya literature as a delivery of culture
- Contemporary Tigrinya literature, Tigrinya literary works, and Prospects

- Assessment of contemporary publications and distribution of publications in the Tigrinya language
- Technology and contemporary approaches to Tigrinya literature
- Tigrinya Cultural particularities
- Tigrinya language and culture in contemporary media
- Writing in languages in a Pan-Africanist context
- Indigenous languages and Indigenous knowledge systems; why should we care about African languages?
- Literature and national/African identities
- Freedom, dissent, resistance, and justice in literature
- Current Publication Practices, and Challenges of Publishing
- Possibilities and Future Directions
- Orthographic Standardization
- Dialectology

Papers may be in Tigrinya or English. Proposals for presentation can be submitted via email to: tigrinya.symposium@gmail.com or Click the Submit Event link in the left sidebar.
